It is past time to put this case to rest. We have wasted millions of taxpayers dollars trying to kill the American dream. Not many people can start with nothing and become a billionaire. We should be putting him on the front page showing what an American can do or better what you can do in America. Further he gives more money to help others than any other single American. I guess thats what bothers the liberals they want the money for themselves. And we can see that the crooked lawyers are getting rich and nobody is complaining about that. Put a stop to it now
